2.13 Existing and Foreign Interests. The powers described in Article II of this durable power of attorney may be exercised equally with respect to an interest I have at the time this durable power of attorney is executed or an interest which I acquire later, whether or not the interest is located in Florida and whether or not the powers are exercised or the durable power of attorney is executed in Florida.

ARTICLE III

Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, any authority granted to my agent shall be limited so as to prevent this durable power of attorney from causing my agent to be taxed on my income (unless my agent is my spouse) and from causing my assets to be subject to a general power of appointment by my agent, as that term is defined in Section 2041 of the Code.

ARTICLE IV

Any act or thing lawfully done hereunder by my said agent shall be binding on myself and my heirs, legal and personal representatives, and assigns, provided, however, that all business transacted hereunder for me or for my account shall be transacted in my name, and that all endorsements and instruments executed by my said agent for the purpose of carrying out the foregoing powers shall contain my name, followed by that of my said agent and the designation "Agent."

ARTICLE V

Any third party may transact any matter with my agent in the same manner and to the same extent as the third party would transact such matter with me. Third parties who act in reliance upon the representations of my agent shall be held harmless by me, my estate, the beneficiaries of my estate, or joint owners of property from any loss suffered or liability incurred as a result of actions taken prior to receipt of written notice of revocation, suspension, notice of a petition to determine incapacity, partial or complete termination, or my death. Any third party may rely upon a copy of this durable power of attorney certified by my agent to be a true copy of the original hereof, as fully as if such third party had received an original of this durable power of attorney.

ARTICLE VI

My agent shall not be liable for any acts or decisions made in good faith and in conformity with the powers enumerated in this durable power of attorney. However, my agent shall not be relieved from liability for breach of duty committed dishonestly, with improper motive, or with reckless indifference to me or the purposes of this durable power of attorney.

ARTICLE VII

My agent shall have the power to pay a reasonable fee from my estate to each agent who is a qualified agent as defined in Section 709.2112(4), Florida Statutes as compensation for services rendered under this durable power of attorney in an amount which does not exceed the customary and prevailing charges for services of a similar character at the time and place such services are performed. My agent shall also be entitled to reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred on my behalf.

ARTICLE VIII

I hereby revoke all durable general powers of attorney executed by me prior to the date of this power of attorney, and all such durable general powers of attorney shall no longer be of force and effect. All powers and authorities granted under said durable general powers of attorney are hereby withdrawn and revoked effective immediately. The provisions of this paragraph shall not revoke any power of attorney I have previously executed which is limited to a specific and identifiable action or transaction, such as a power of attorney I have executed as part of a contract for the management of a bank or brokerage account. If I desire to revoke any such prior limited or specific power of attorney, I will execute a revocation specifically referring to the power of attorney to be revoked.

ARTICLE IX

This durable power of attorney is not terminated by subsequent incapacity of the principal except as provided in chapter 709, Florida Statutes. This durable power of attorney shall terminate by one or more of the following circumstances:

- (1) My death;
- (2) The death or deaths of all agents named in the first paragraph of this durable power of attorney; or
