CONSENT FINAL ORDER, JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

Upon consideration of this case, and based upon the agreement of the parties, it is the judgment of the Court that a total divorce be granted, that is to say a divorce a vinculo matrimonii between the parties in the above stated case upon legal principles.

It is considered, ordered and decreed by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore entered into between the parties to this case, from and after this date, be and is set aside and dissolved as fully and effectually as if no such contract had ever been entered into.

The Petitioner (“Husband”) and Respondent (“Wife”) in the future shall be held and considered as separate and distinct persons altogether unconnected by any nuptial union or civil contract whatsoever, and both shall have the right to remarry.

The parties have settled all issues between them including, but not limited to, real and personal property division, debts, health insurance, alimony, automobiles, retirement accounts, financial accounts, income tax filings and attorney’s fees and it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the terms of the Settlement Agreement reached between the parties on April 25, 2023 is hereby incorporated in, and made a part.

SO ORDERED this the 3rd day of May, 2023.
