

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE TWELFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR SARASOTA COUNTY, FLORIDA

IN RE: The Marriage of

KEITH R. MAISEL,
Petitioner/Husband,

CASE NO.: 2011 DR 000765 NC

THERESA MAISEL,
Respondent/Wife,

QUALIFIED DOMESTIC RELATIONS ORDER

THIS CAUSE having come on before the Court for entry of a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (hereinafter referred to as QDRO). The parties were married on September 05, 1987. A Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage was entered in this case on August 30, 2012 which reserved jurisdiction of entry of a QDRO.

Pursuant to the Marital Settlement Agreement incorporated by reference in the Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage, the Court finds that the former Wife is entitled to a portion of the former Husband's retirement benefits under the Florida Retirement System as agreed to by the parties, as part of the equitable distribution of marital assets. Pursuant to Section 414 (p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Section 222.21 of the Florida Statutes, and Chapter 61 of the Florida Statutes, it is therefore,

ORDERED and ADJUDGED:

1. The term "Participant" means the former husband, Keith R. Maisel, Social Security Number Pursuant to Florida Statute, Title X, Chapter 119, Section 119.071(2)(h)(I), this information will be submitted under separate cover, whose current and last known address is 4768 Ringwood Meadow, Sarasota, FL 34235, and who is a participant under the Florida Retirement System through the Participant's employer, Sarasota County Government. The Participant's date of birth is 1960. Pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.425, only the year of birth is permitted to be included, the full date of birth will be submitted under separate cover.

2. The term "Alternate Payee" means Theresa Maisel, the former spouse of the Participant, Social Security Number Pursuant to Florida Statute, Title X, Chapter 119, Section 119.071(2)(h)(I), this information will be submitted under separate cover, whose current and last known address is 960 Tangled Oaks Drive, Sarasota, FL 34232. The Alternate Payee's date of birth is 1960. Pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.425, only the year of birth is permitted to be included, the full date of birth will be submitted under separate cover.

3. The term "Plan" shall refer to the Florida Retirement System.

4. This order is drawn pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida regarding the equitable distribution of marital property (as that term is defined therein) between spouses in an action for dissolution of marriage.

5. Former Wife , as Alternate Payee, is hereby awarded a portion of Participant's entitlement under the Florida Retirement System, as a deduction from each monthly benefit payment payable to Participant from the plan. The amount of the deduction shall be $912.70 of all benefits that have accrued to the Participant through June 30, 2011, which the Participant would be entitled to if the Participant was to retire at age 55, July 21, 2015 utilizing retirement Option 1 under section 121.091 (6) of the Florida Statutes which amount has already been reduced for an early retirement penalty for the Participant's total creditable service through June 30, 2011.

6. Participant may select any retirement option at retirement, but the deduction payment to the Alternate Payee shall be measured as though the Participant had made the Option 1 selection.

7. The Participant shall timely file the application for service retirement directing that the Alternate Payee be designated as the Alternate Payee to the extent provided herein.

8. Beginning with the first monthly retirement benefit payment actually made to the Participant, the sum of $912.70 shall be deducted and paid as a deduction to the Alternate Payee, assuming it is paid as of the Participant's normal retirement age. If the Participant retires early and the benefit is reduced for early commencement, the amount to be paid to the Alternate Payee, as reflected above, shall not be further reduced. This monthly deduction payment will continue in like amount each month thereafter in which the Participant is entitled to receive a monthly benefit payment from the Plan which exceeds the amount of the deduction.

9. The Alternate Payee's monthly deduction payments shall be payable to the Alternate Payee commencing on the date monthly retirement benefits actually commence being paid to the Participant under the Florida Retirement System. The Participant's retirement pension benefits under the Florida Retirement System shall be subject to this order and to the Alternate Payee's right to receive a distribution of the marital assets of the parties. The Plan Administrator, Director of the Division of Retirement, is directed and ordered to pay the Alternate Payee in accordance with this QDRO. Copies of this order shall be served by U.S. mail by Faith Lodder, Esquire, as attorney for the Alternate Payee, on the Plan Administrator, whose address is: P. O. Box 9000, Tallahassee, Florida 32315-9000, with a Certificate of Service to Jordan L. Wallach, Esquire, attorney for the Participant.

10. The parties agree that the Plan Administrator shall increase the amount payable each month to the Alternate Payee based upon the Alternate Payee's share of any cost of living adjustment (COLA) received by the Participant. COLAs are made at the start of each fiscal year, which is currently the month of July. After the time the Participant receives any COLA and until the Plan Administrator commences payment to the Alternate Payee, of the Alternate Payee's proportionate share, the Participant shall pay directly to the Alternate Payee the Alternate Payee's proportionate share of any COLA.

11. If the Participant participates in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan (DROP), the Alternate Payee's share of the Participant's benefit will be deposited in a separate DROP account where it shall earn interest at the same rate as the Participant's share. The accrued benefits and interest will be released to the Alternate Payee when the Participant's participation in the DROP program terminates (not to exceed the maximum period of time allowed under the DROP), regardless of whether the Participant elects to have all or a portion of the Participant's share rolled over into another eligible investment vehicle (401-K, IRA, etc.) or takes a lump sum payment.

If the Participant predeceases the Alternate Payee after enrolling in DROP but before actual retirement, the Alternate Payee is to receive the portion of the DROP benefit assigned to the Alternate Payee in this Order. The Alternate Payee's portion will be held in a separate account and the Alternate Payee will have all of the rights of a participant as to the form of payment from the DROP program.

12. The Plan Administrator, the Director of the Division of Retirement of the State of Florida, is hereby ordered and directed to make the payments provided for herein until either the Participant or Alternate Payee dies, or until further order of the Court, whichever occurs first. Upon the death of the Participant or the Alternate Payee, the QDRO becomes Null and Void.

13. This order does not require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit, or any option, not otherwise provided under the plan; does not require the Plan to provide increased benefits; and does not require the payment of benefits to an Alternate Payee which are required to be paid to another Alternate Payee under another Order previously determined to be a QDRO.

14. All payments to the Alternate Payee shall be made payable to the Alternate Payee at 960 Tangled Oaks Drive, Sarasota, FL 34236. It is the duty of the Alternate Payee to advise the Plan Administrator, in writing, of any change of address. The Division of Retirement is not responsible for any loss incurred by the Alternate Payee due to a change of address, of which the Division is not advised.

15. The Participant and Alternate Payee shall each be responsible for their own Federal income taxes due as a result of the distribution made from the Florida Retirement System as required by law (unless the distribution is made to a non-spouse alternate payee, in which case the distribution shall be taxable to the Participant).

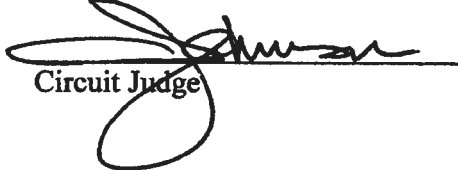

16. The Court retains jurisdiction to amend this order for the purpose of establishing or maintaining its qualifications as a QDRO.

17. This order shall supersede any previous order in this cause seeking deduction payments from the Plan Administrator, or from the Florida Retirement System, or from the Division of Retirement of the State of Florida and each is hereby absolved and released from any liability or responsibility under any such prior Order in this cause.

18. Except as modified by this Order, all provisions set forth in the Marital Settlement Agreement incorporated by reference in the Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage dated August 30, 2012 shall remain in full force and effect.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers in Sarasota, County of Sarasota, Florida this 14 day of March, 2014.
